CAGE OF HONOR NEWS BRIEF

A MIKE JOHNSON PROJECT

COH NETWORK

V:9 I:8

Welcome back to another cycle of Cage Of Honor action! Last cycle COH had yet another addition, adding CSL to the COH Network. I have to say this addition somewhat surprised me because CSL wasn't on my radar and I was comfortable with 4 COH leagues but I received an offer I couldn't refuse and the rest is history. I'll say this again I think we're set with the five leagues we have on board but then again, never say never.

With CSL, we started off right off the bat with the CSL Cup as my goal is to crown our first champion at Final Battle. I also decided to have a mini-tag tournament, the 2017 addition of the Bloodshed brawler Tag Team Invitational will only be a four team tournament but that will get us to having two of four titles decided by Final Battle. Then cycle two of 2018 we'll begin the Bob Dippy Tournament Of Brutality to crown the COH Brutality Champion and then at some point after round 1 or 2 we'll begin the tournament to determine the COH pride Champion. The goal is to have all champions determined by the end of the first quarter of the year. Another goal is to have a second show in CSL some point in 2018. Dash Fan Matty returned and we hit 22 cards. If we can maintain at 25 then show two will be set.

EEL continues to impress with another solid showing having 46 cards. With that number, EEL was given 2 matches off of the Full Impact Pro card this cycle. EEL last cycle determined their first tag team Champions as Pete Dunne and Trent Sven won the tag team championship. This cycle round one of the King Of EEL is set, 8 wrestlers will be battling it out for a chance to become the first COH Extreme Existence Champion and earn $250k. After Final Battle, the 2nd cycle of 2018 we begin the Tournament Of Torment to determine EEL's final COH Championship, the COH Crown Of Thorns Championship. Speaking of Final Battle, its official, the COH Affliction Championship match will be the headliner for the event. This cycle there's a number one contender's match set- Eaves vs Quinn Guzzy with the winner facing Vladimir Petrov in EEL's Final Battle main event.

In HWL, there was some what of a resurgence but again a big thanks for that goes to Mr. 400 Matty being active. Last cycle there were 41 cards so I decided to give HWL the 3 matches on Full Impact pro but after thinking about it more I booked an interleague match as the 3rd. Next FIP 3 matches will go to whoever has more cards the previous cycle. HWL crowned a new COH Women's World Champion as Queen B finally took the crown. This cycle the Kylie-Kim winner faces the Queen at Final Battle. HWL features two contact matches for entries into the XWL-IWA Hardcore League wide contest. Norman Krasner vs Big Blank and Creeper vs Kanye. I want HWL represented in this tournament and if I have to toss $4 out there I will. There will be a third contract match on Combat Zone prequel to Final Battle show next cycle.

This cycle HLL starts their first Hero Cup. Unfortunately the tournament will be complete the 2nd cycle of 2018 but this is a special version of the tournament as all current champions and any former champion is booked in this filed of 8. The 2018 version will be somewhat different as to who is entered. In big news, HLL is now in control of the ICW World Championship as Hawkeye Science defeated Duke Ken to win the championship. There will be an ICW Championship match main eventing the Combat Zone Prequel to Final Battle as Hawkeye Science will face EEL's Hades Royal. HLL also guaranteed themselves the first COH/ICW King Of The Deathmatch Champion as the final 3 are HLL wrestlers. This cycle Dash Fan 3 faces Nick Gage with the winner facing Eddie Gilbert at HLL's Final Battle.

Finally in MEL we had a big cycle pass and a big cycle set. Last cycle Donald Faz Chambers and George Erlewein won the Deadly Duo, this cycle they face off for more i-cash and a COH Main Event Championship match at Final Battle. Also this cycle Ari Gold receives a title match the cycle before Final Battle but knowing Mobster Rocky Tartaglia he's ready for this. IMT is really making this one of their home leagues and I heard my try to hit the 100 wrestler mark there, sad but true. Either way if they like facing each other more power to them. So as I mentioned Final Battle is next cycle. The plan is for each league to run their own Final Battle and then we'll have Combat Zone The Prequel to Final Battle featuring all 5 leagues. All championships will be on the line so there will be plenty of action set for this amazing cycle. I'll post some of the Final Battle and Prequel matches later in the report but before we get to that and what's booked for this cycle, let's check the full results from last cycle first.

Around The Network

Anyone that can get someone from NME into the league, I'm willing to toss them 10 free matches. Miler is number one on the wish list but a member of NME active for multiple cycles, 10 free matches.

After this cycles two XWL- IWA Hardcore Wide King Of Hardcore tournament, there will be two more contract matches signed. A IMT vs KDSN match and a VIRUS vs IMT match. I really hope some managers dig deep and spend the $2 to enter. I'm putting a match deal up and you can win a real IWA Championship belt.

MEL, the league is super flooded with IMT. In all honesty was my least favorite league from the get go but I also use my 4th drop there so it is what it is. Still the number of IMT there is amazing. I'll talk to the VIRUS crew and see if they want to counter flood or maybe we'll just give you the league.

VIRUS vs VIRUS: Belcher vs Drake best of 7 is set to begin the 1st cycle of 2018. It will be a two part series, singles and tag since I know Frank will hand me my a in 6man. Same singles and tags the entire way. Mike Drake for single, Bloodshed Brawler MD, Brock Rampage for Tag. Million Dollar Man Slick Rick for singles, Bird Flu, STD for tag. $250k to the winner, may the best man win!

Final Battle is next cycle. Each league will have their own show, plus we'll have a Combat Zone show as well. All shows will be 6-10 matches

So with that all said, I'd like to thank everyone for being active. Right now we have 5 solid leagues with some fantastic managers. I'd like to see each league in the future average 30 plus cards. I know EEL can do 40-50 and feel the same about HWL. HLL and MEL is a manager away from the same level. CSL is a work in progress but went from a sad looking 15 cards to a packed 22 card showing this cycle. A managers or two away from 30 cards and I'm still on the fence if I want to do a match deal there, maybe after UWL. Speaking of UWL, if any COH league wrestler wins UWL, I'm giving a match deal to that manager.

Other than that, I thank you for your patience, I thank you for your activity, and I wish you all the best of luck this cycle. Thank you and I'll see you all in the bulletins!
