Imagimania XXXII: Signed in Blood

IWA wrestlers came from far and wide to compete in this event benefitting the Autism Society of America, and raised an incredible $429 for the cause! The fans loved the action, the representatives from the charity loved the support, and we loved knowing that we have such selfless athletes as part of our organization. There were definitely no losers that night.

At the end of the show, our “Above and Beyond” donors stepped in the ring and boosted the total by $154! Those ASA guardian angels were Jerry Anderson of Michigan (who contributed not only the initial idea, but also cash and three of his own wrestlers’ contracts), Randall Angel of Louisiana, Jimmy Dabbs of North Carolina, Jordan Drake of Louisiana, Jerald Horton of Oregon, David Lewis of New York, Kenneth Plasse of Alabama, Chris Stevens of Texas, Joe Tusa of Pennsylvania, and Keith “The Devil” Voss of Austria.

Inspired by your generosity, we topped up the donation to an even $600 — you guys were already the heroes, so we decided to provide the zeroes.

And now, we proudly present the imaginary wrestlers and their managers who made a very real difference in the world:
