Virgil Earp, “Watt did I tell yah ol’son? I tried to warn yah, but yah wanted the stink rubbed all over yer pretty faces. Yah dun found out, yah mess with the ‘Brute’, he can get real mean! Rub-ah-dub-dub, yah found out dah hard way. I’m not messin’, I’m here to git my share and yer share of the gold and the big, big paycheck that comes wid being Television Six Man Champions. Don’t make a difference, who’s in my way, yah gonna git the stink!”

Wyatt Earp "Lemme tell y'all somethin', right now! I ain't here to make friends, and I sure ain't here to play nice. I'm Wyatt Earp, and I've been tearin' through this roster like a bull through a china shop! You think I care 'bout the rules? I make my own rules, and if you step in the ring with me, you best believe you're gonna get hurt. I've laid out better men than most of y'all ever seen, and I ain't slowin' down for nobody. You boys wanna call yourselves tough? You wanna act like you're somethin' special? Step up to Wyatt Earp, and I'll show ya just how fast that tough talk turns into cries for mercy!"

Morgan Earp, “Let me tell ya something, friend. The Earps are here, and y'all know that we stand for law & order. Y'know, we've been in this business a long time. We've seen the young bloods come in with all their flash, all their fancy moves, thinking they're gonna rewrite the rules. But here's the thing—WE ARE the rulebook. You want to come into our yard, step into that ring and prove yourself? You gotta go through me. No shortcuts, no cheap tricks—just you and me, one-on-one, man to man. And lemme tell you somethin', that's where I do my best work.”
