A word from YOUR commish..

Welcome TCW viewers. This is the one and only. The Rev JayAre.

I have returned after a long hiatus from this sport. Many know me and many have witnessed the leagues I've established and the championships I've won.

I have returned because it is my vision (TCW) Total Championship Wrestling. To create a atmosphere where wrestling fans and wrestling superstars alike can come together and achieve their dreams.

I have created TCW to start careers towards championship status. No wrestler will be allowed to transfer from another league. Only new wrestlers will be allowed to begin their careers here.

I have a rewards system here. I have 50k to award every cycle. So here is how it will go down.

25k - to who wins the TCW gauntlet for the TCW Global Championship. (Further tournaments and ppv matches will be in line for this reward in the future)

10k - to whoever is the TCW World champion.

10k - to the wrestler who competes in the MOST matches in the cycle.

5k - to whoever beats ME - The Rev Commissioner JayAre by the most points wins.

As the TCW builds and grows; prepare for a more lengthy word from your commish.

Have a great day TCW.

[Camera opens with a dark room illuminated by a single overhead light, casting shadows over the masked man known only as X. He stands in front of the TCW banner, arms folded, dressed in all black with his signature mask covering his face. His voice is calm and steady, dripping with arrogance.]

X: "So here we are, TCW... the land of dreams and nightmares. They say this is where the best of the best come to prove themselves. Champions, warriors, men who think they have what it takes to stand in my ring. But every time they step in there, every time they look across that squared circle and see me—X—they hesitate. And I see it... I see the doubt creep into their eyes.

They know. Deep down, they know they don't have the guts, the will, or the fortitude to face a man like me."

[He raises a gloved finger, slowly pointing toward the camera, maintaining his cold, calculated demeanor.]

X: "You see, I've watched them come and go—name after name, face after face—claiming they're ready. Claiming they've got the heart, the drive, the skill to take me down. But the truth is... no one in TCW has the backbone to truly step up. They come with their bravado, their flashy moves, and their empty promises. And what happens? They fall. Hard. Because they fail to understand one simple fact: when you step into that ring, you aren't just wrestling another man... you're stepping into my domain."

[X slowly steps closer to the camera, his voice lowering but remaining steady.]

X:"I've built my legacy in that ring. I don't need to shout. I don't need to scream. I let my actions speak, and each time that bell rings, it tells the same story—I am unbeatable. But it's not because I'm faster, stronger, or smarter than you. No... it's because I live in that ring. That ring is my house. I protect my house."

[He stares intently into the camera, speaking his final words with chilling confidence.]

X:"So, for anyone foolish enough to challenge me... remember one thing. You're not just facing X. You're facing the inevitable. You step into that ring... you step into my house... and you don't walk out the same."

[He holds the stare for a few moments, then slowly turns and walks out of frame as the camera fades to black.]

Ace Anderson- the IWA, it's a journey. Bumpy roads, twists and turns. Good strats, Bad strats, and imaginary World of the unknown. Now this unknown has brought upon us a new journey, TCW. A new chapter in our careers, an opportunity to prove worth, to prove we still have it, whatever that it was.

Drake Douglas- many times in the past, we've proven we were the top dog, the king of the mountain but what does that mean in TCW...nothing. 16x equals nothing here and now with this new beginning, we are here to show the TCW faithful what our brand of CURE is all about. The Cerebral Union of Revolutionary Extremists was a phrase spit out of my lips before those Infected became Cured. Now CURE has a different meaning but my meaning is still the same. I'm planning a war, I'm looking for misery, and looking to eliminate those who see things differently. My way to CURE is going to be Cut Throat, kill or be killed. Fun fact, for $25 in a real world chat, I bought the imaginary rights to CTI off its doped up founding father. Ask around, probably the best thing for a stable that could've been but never was.

Ace Anderson- so the Cut Throat era begins in TCW this cycle. A dark chapter embarks us now, in our heads we're in bad places and we want to enlighten you all on what that's like and what it's all about. It's time to think differently, Doom is upon us, let it burn...

Reagan Race- when it comes to TOXIC, normally we only hear from Ulysses Deadeye, Mac Diesel, Addisyn Killswitch, and Anakin Killswitch while the rest of us sit back and wait for a chance. I'm new to the fold and respect the TOXIC brotherhood but truth be told, I won't be waiting till it's my turn. It's been my turn since day one and I've decided it was my time to show that. TCW gives me that chance and for now I'm here alone but everyone knows strength in numbers is what makes the IWA landscape tick. But for now all I need is myself, that's all I've ever needed in life and it's how I'm starting here. I see TCW as a unique chance that I needed to take, to step out from the shadow cast by Ulysses and to show that TOXIC isn't the Deadeye show. Ulysses has thst gift of gab but I have a mouth as well and can easily spit my shtick with the best of them and soon whoever wants to take the first shot will find out just that. But for now, I'm here, we're all here. The start of a new tomorrow is upon us, we've been brought to the horizon, if the time stops what does that mean for the now. All hail Next Gen.

TAY CRYPTIO JR.

Being the son of a very well know magician and illusionist in South America, Tay learned a lot of his talents from his father since being in the illusion business you need to be athletic and have good physical ability to perform.

Tay's interest to study wrestling was when he was recovering from an injury that happened while performing a sawing in half trick at one of his father's shows. The injury effected his right elbow which has become his best weapon in his wrestling career so far because of the restructuring and rehab of the elbow.
