

REPORT #22

OFFICIAL RANKING SYSTEM

Once your wrestlers are set into a division, they can remain there for as little or as long you like. However, if you decided to change divisions, then said wrestler will start from scratch in points for his new division.

Super jobbers are non-player controlled computer wrestlers. Each cycle 10 random jobbers will be chosen as super jobbers, and will have a strategy total ranging from 474 to 494. Not only does this make for tougher competition, but it's a fun way to earn extra points!

5 points for trash talk. Does not have to be a masterpiece, but it does have to include an effort. Does not include homework, but segments for official PPV's will count if said wrestlers did not do trash talk in the bulletin.

-5 points for trash talk that makes no sense, or is done in a lazy fashion.

3 points per TV Taping win (non PPV/Event)

1 point per TV Taping loss (non PPV/Event)

3 points per Tag Team win in a super jobber tag match (Vs. The World)

1 point per Tag Team loss in a super jobber tag team match (Vs. The World)

3 points per a win in a super jobber match (Vs. The World)

-1 point per lose in a super jobber match (Vs. The World)

0 points for a draw.

4 Bonus points will go to the winner of the leagues battle royal each cycle.

2 bonus points if you beat anyone ranked above you in your division, and it must be a TV taping, or a match on one of the two tv Shows.

-10 points If Hell in a Cell matches are signed without approval. Every wrestler of the manager that signed the match will get this penalty. This is known as the "Troy Rule". Or if a division champion loses his championship.

During tournaments, or special events one may cross division compete for a title. If a non-division wrestler wins a non-division title they will defend that title until they lose it. Once lost they will default back to their original division.

Single competitors cannot have TV Tapings against Tag wrestlers. If they are signed, it will be cancelled out.

Whoever has the highest amount of points per division will face off against the person ranked #2 in a #1 contenders match for said division's title. Unless the top contenders are managed by the same person. Then it will go down 1 rank until a new manager can face off.

Interim-Commissioner Terrance Haggard

Hello loyal CCL managers and welcome to another exciting cycle of CCL, the league that dares to be different than all of those other “same old” leagues, except a small handful of other leagues like LWL and AWL. It’s time to get to business!

Hugo Fatts is on a small vacation but his presence is still here. What I mean is this, he is so dedicated that he still calls me at least two times a day to see how the league operations are going. What I am trying to say is this. While I may be Interim Commish, Hugo still has the final say on matters at hand. I guess that is why he trusts me so much. So don’t any of you try to get any silly ideas in your heads on trying to bully me, because it won’t work! Speaking of our beloved commish, he has made CCL history! He is the first man ever to make BOTH the Most Hated AND Most Popular Lists in the same cycle!!! Love him or hate him, he must be doing something right to have both sides of the polls on him! Speaking of being hated and loved, I endorse Hugo Fatts for United States President in the year 2020!!!

Unforeseen Consequences 4 is quickly approaching and already the card is stacked! Look for an updated card in this report. Kid Van Dam dethroned the King to win the CCL World title and he now has a date with Buddy Cantrell at UC 4. However, King Butcher and Kaos Knight, who are top contenders, also have a date at the PPV, but both seem to be looming towards both the challenger and champion. This is going to be an exciting time to be a fan of CCL, let me tell you!

Now, I must get to a serious topic. Hugo has been very lenient about this, but I am NOT! It is FINE TIME!!! King Butcher, for your heinous actions and assault against Kaos Knight and Ray Blaine Ferris, you are fined $20,000!!! Mongolian Rebel and Asian Madman, you are also fined $5,000 each for stealing Hugo Fatts’ shipment of cake and giving it to AWL fans, and also for the fact that you had wrestlers from the AWL sneak attack wrestlers from CCL. That is uncalled for and I will not stand up for it! Last but not least, I thought about the actions that William the Conqueror did to Hugo Fatts and it was a tough one. William did attack him as a wrestler against another wrestler. HOWEVER....his actions later got me a little PO’d. Tying Hugo up hog style, putting an apple in his mouth and then slapping him...NOT ON MY WATCH! To me, that is a hate crime! William the Conqueror, you are fined $10,000 for your actions! So now, we have $40,000 in fines to add to the pot of goodies for Commish Hugo to deal with!

Until next cycle, in the words of my buddy Hugo Fatts, “Toot-A-Loo!”

BRAIN STORM

Ray "The Genius" Heenan

I just have to ask one very important question! How in the heck did a previous #8 ranked punk like Kid Van Dam get a World title shot against King Butcher?! It was like how Butcher had to defend his title out of nowhere also against Outhouse Jack! I am totally filing a complaint against CCW to the IWA in Butcher's defense as Hugo Fatts went above and beyond his way to make sure Butcher would lose the World title at all costs! Hugo, you fat slob cake eating blob of a mess, you will get what is coming to you!

Speaking of that Cake junkie, Fatts, I was pleased to hear that his shipment of cakes were stolen by CCW natives Mongolian Rebel and Asian Madman...Come on, it's not like Hugo the Hurricane has missed any meals! Judging by his waist line, he is about a 60 incher?! He can afford to miss a few cakes! And Hugo, whether you know it or not, Asian Madman and Mongolian Rebel are perhaps saving your life!

Another tidbit about Fatts I heard and this takes the cake, literally! I am the Genius after all and I know how to get the inside scoops, so listen up, dummies, because this is important! Forget Great Balls of Fire! Hugo Fatts, upon his return to full power is rumored to top that with a PPV name of his own! Ready for this, humanoids? I heard a rumor that the next CCW PPV will be named....CAKE WALK!!! You heard it here first!
