Superstar Cycle Insider...

Generation Next League fans, welcome back for another edition of the Superstar Cycle Insider. For this installment we will take a look at the remaining 2/3 of the GNL Cage Of Honor chapter members and inaugural Super Next Tag Team Champions, Roderick Rampage and Mike Vendetta. I had the opportunity to sit down with the VIRUS/COH members after their Ground Zero performance.

Rampage and Vendetta have been teaming together outside of the IWA for many years. They made names for themselves in ACE Wrestling, holding both ACE North American Tag Team Championships and ACE World Tag Team Championships. The duo had a “falling out” with management forcing them to leave ACE in search for a new company to call home. They found ICW Wrestling, where they would go on to hold the ICW World Tag Team Championships on multiple occasions. Eventually they left ICW due to the company being unable to pay for their appearances, they joined PBM Wrestling.

In PBM they immediately won the PBMW World Tag Team Championships. After several successful Title defenses they signed their IWA contracts while still holding the PBMW Championships. These Tag Team Championships are currently on display in the Cage Of Honor Headquarters.

Since signing their COH and GNL contracts, Rampage and Vendetta are seeing first hand what it's like in the "Big Leagues" of Professional Wrestling. Rampage was the inaugural GNL Super X Champion, holding that Championship for the 1st and 2nd Tours with the GNL. Vendetta was the inaugural GNL Ultra Champion.

It had appeared the team had hit a slump but it was the 5th Tour where they found their "rhythm" again. They finished that Tour with their first taste of GNL Tag Team gold, winning the Generation Next Junior Tag Team Championships. They were also crowned inaugural Super Next Tag Team Champions at Ground Zero where they defeated the ONLY Generation Next Elite Tag Team Champions in the League's history, TBABIT members "Lethal" Derrick James & "Bruiser" Quinton Hall.

I believe it is safe to say that Rampage and Vendetta have found their stride here in the GNL. With a stiff Tag Team division, they have made their way to the top only to find TBABIT awaiting their arrival. I for one could watch these two teams go to war on a daily basis. I'm excited to see what these teams have in store for each other and who will be standing tall with the GNL Tag Team Championships.

GNL Fans, Staff, Management and Superstars I would like to take this time to Congratulate all of you for the Support of the Generation Next League and for Ground Zero. Ground Zero was an action packed Pay Per View, full of highlights and filled with the GNL's brightest Superstars. At Ground Zero,

I would also like to Congratulate the Commissioner's Bonus Winners from the 5th Tour, they are as follows:

(Cont'd)

TBABIT: "Bruiser" Quinton Hall -$10,000 TV Champion

VIRUS: Reverend James Jones -$10,000 #1 Ranked Wrestler

"The Siberian Assassin" Liberal Koloff -$10,000 Best Trash Talk

Starting this Tour (Tour #6) the GNL Battle Royal Winner will receive a Free Match for every participant that enters the Battle Royal. If there are 16 entrants than the Winner will receive 16 Free Matches, if there are 3 the Winner will receive 3 Free Matches, so on and so forth. There were 8 Championships awarded from this past Tour's Battle Royal, needless to say spend that extra $1 and get your Superstars in the Battle Royal. You may potentially end up Winning Free Matches, you may potentially win a Championship or you could be like TBABIT: "Bruiser" Quinton Hall that won the Gen Next Junior World Championship from the Battle Royal.

The GNL will host it's 2nd PPV "AfterMath" Tour #10. Start building storylines to involve your Superstars for that event. Once again, Congratulations to all of the Champions from the 5th Tour and the Commissioners Champions Crowned at Ground Zero. Keep up the phenomenal effort with your League Involvement and Trash Talk. Follow the Official Generation Next League Facebook Page for all up to date information and breaking news. You can also listen to the GNL Tubecast on YouTube as Mr. James and myself review each Tour.

-Commissioner Andrew Nichols

Hello GNL fans and Thank You for another splendid Tour. I am you General Manager, Dr. William Worthington and this is indeed my General Managers Report. Ground Zero was astonishing! I would like to send a special Thank You to all of the men/women who showed what they had and went all out to give our fans the best entertainment possible. A special congratulations goes out to our first Super Next Crown Champion, “The Man” Scott Gerran, our first Junior Next Crown Champion, Prince Lee, our first Super Next Tag Team Champions, Roderick Rampage and Mike Vendetta and the new COH Ironman Champion, “The Japanese Beast” Doragon. Also, a special Thank You goes out to EEL’s Mr. Mike Drake for coming to our grand event and putting his Championship on the line. I have it on good authority that Doragon has said that he will grant you your rematch whenever and wherever you would like.

This Tour certainly was a monumental occasion but sadly I also have some breaking news from the GNL Offices. While the fine fans of the GNL were enjoying our PPV, I was reviewing some of the CCTV footage from the past several Tours and came across some rather disturbing information. The footage revealed Spencer Bateman exiting the Men’s Restroom and handing the three members of Highly Suspect a cup, presumably taking the random Drug Screening administered to the competitors to ensure that they would pass. This behavior

WILL NOT be tolerated on my watch and currently Mr. Bateman has been suspended for 1 complete Tour without pay, further action may be taken if necessary.

Unfortunately the tests have been administered and completed. In the GNL Competitors contracts, it states that GNL Management may only subject each competitor to a random Drug Screening once per calendar year. Thus resulting in Highly Suspect not being eligible for retest until Tour #20, so for now they are safe but believe me, I will be keeping a close eye on all competitors and staff alike from now on. With having said that, a point was brought up by Commissioner Nichols and Mr. James on the GNL Tubecast and will be addressed by management next. Members of TBABIT, you are to report to my office before the next Tour begins for a random Drug Screening. Should these men fail, not only will they be suspended for one Tour but Mr. Gerran will be stripped from his newly won Super Next Crown Championship.

That is all I have for you this Tour fans. Please make sure to keep in touch via the Official GNL Facebook Page and give a listen to the GNL Tubecast, it's quite good if I say so myself. Until next time friends, Ta-Ta for now.

- GNL General Manager Dr. William Worthington
