Superstar Cycle Insider...

This edition of the Generation Next Superstar Cycle Insider will introduce you to the very first Tag-Team to graduate from the Generation Next Gym. This Tag-Team are members of The Blazer Corporation, The Gulfport Boyz. These guys are certainly making a name for themselves in the Generation Next League. Their first tour with the GNL they were both ranked in the top 10. Their second tour they were crowned the inaugural Gen Next Junior Tag-Team Champions. They also made up 2/3 of the inaugural Gen Next Junior Trios Champions.

Jim Blazer of The Blazer Corporation discovered the Gulfport Boyz, Doc Washington and "Frogger" Jay Dixon while following a lead on the docks of Gulfport, Louisiana. Unstable to say the least, Dixon and Washington had proven themselves to be legitimate fighters. Legendary stories make their way around the docks where the two make their living, needless to say the duo are not afraid of a confrontation.

"Frogger" Jay Dixon is smaller and younger of the two but definitely more agile. Standing at a lean 6'0", 215 lbs, Jay earned the nickname "Frogger" with his extremely high vertical leaping ability. Jay also possesses the gift of gab, as he is very outspoken. He has most certainly had his fair share of altercations due to that fact. He has the ability to back up anything he may say to any advisory, especially if he lands the Frogger Splash. The Frogger Splash is his finishing maneuver, which is a 580

moonsault splash. "Frogger" captured the Gen Next Junior World Championship on his second tour with the GNL. He defeated The Grand Wizard with his 580 Frogger Splash, becoming only the second Gen Next Junior World Champion.

Doc Washington stands at a towering 6'6", weighing in at 340 lbs; he is an absolute monster of a man. Rather unstable and possessing a massive physique, Doc is the muscle of the team. It's rumored that he has been known to Press Slam co-workers into the Gulf while giggling maniacally. One look from Doc has caused guys to quit the docks out of pure fear alone. His finisher, The Gulfport Bomb, a Last Ride Power Bomb, has caused guys to completely quit Professional Wrestling all together. This guy is relentless.

Jim Blazer of The Blazer Corporation has taken management of The Gulfport Boyz and acquired the duo contracts in the Generation Next League. Mr. Blazer looks forward to working alongside his freshly new recruits and have advised them to pursue gold by any means necessary. Personally, I believe Mr. Blazer's persuasion may have been the missing ingredient. The Gulfport Boys have done exactly that since their arrival here in the GNL, while cementing their Legacy. This is one Tag-Team to watch in the Generation Next League.

Spencer Bateman here with Breaking News just released by Generation Next League Officials. The Generation Next League have officially announced the First GNL Pay Per View. That's right folks! Rumors have been running rampant that the Generation Next League have had this in the works. GNL Officials confirmed today that this event will take place Cycle #5.

Generation Next League Commissioner Andrew Nichols and General Manager Dr. William Worthington announced the events name will be Ground Zero. Commissioner Nichols said, "The name Ground Zero is fitting for our first PPV here in the GNL. The Generation Next League started from absolutely nothing but a hope and dream. It is developing into something special that IWA fans love and stand behind. We are excited to give this opportunity to the GNL Talent. I wish all competitors the very best of luck. Make the most of this opportunity".

Hello chaps, this is your Generation Next League General

Now on to other business at hand..... The boys of Cage of Honor certainly have an exquisite track record everywhere they go and have never been known to back down from a challenge. That being said, the First Match announced for Ground Zero will be Drake Douglas vs. "The Siberian Assassin" Liberal Koloff. This match will be held inside of a Steel Cage. No running, no hiding, no interference. I want these two men to settle their differences and give us one hell of a match in the process. At this event we will crown the first ever Super Next Tag-Team Champions in a Gauntlet Tag-Team Match. Competitors will include The Gulfport Boyz, TBASID (James&Hall), Roderick Rampage & Mike Vendetta, McLovin & McHatin, Highly Suspect (Jane & Greenhouse) *Pending Drug Screening Results. You also see a Super Next Crown Tournament for the first ever Super Next Crown Championship. (Competitors of this match are to be announced) More matches will be added to the card. I expect nothing but the best from all that participate in this historic event. Remember Chaps, put forth your best effort because you never know what opportunities are awaiting in your future. Be sure to keep an eye on the official Generation Next League Facebook Page for up to the minute updates. Ta-Ta for now lads.

WHAT'S UP!

Hello again everybody and welcome back to another episode of What's Up in the Generation Next League. I am your Host, Spencer Bateman and boy do we have a jam packed line up tonight.

First and foremost lets discuss the General Manager of the Generation Next League, Dr. William Worthington. This guy comes in and immediately implements a "random" drug screening policy. The members of Highly Suspect took to the Official GNL Facebook Page to voice their displeasure about this subject. We will see how this plays out in the next couple of cycles.

Speaking of the next couple of cycles, rumors are swirling around the GNL about the Leagues first Pay Per View, Ground Zero coming in cycle #5. While all of the details are not out yet, I have heard from Commissioner Nichols himself, that the card for this event will be epic.

In other news, The Gulfport Boyz make their presence known in the GNL, especially "Frogger" Jay Dixon who captured the Gen Next Junior World Championship. These good ol' boys seem like they are gonna to be a force to be reckon' with here in the GNL.

Insane Issac and Liberal Koloff give us a short promo on how "The Siberian Assassin" is for hire for any stable. Also how displeased they were to not have walked away with gold in cycle #1, although that all changed in cycle #2 as Liberal Koloff was crowned New GNL No Limits Champion. His reign as Champion could be cut short as Drake Douglas and Insane Issac exchange words in the backstage area, leading to Douglas/Koloff in a stare down. These are two of the biggest stars in the GNL today, rumor has it that they are scheduled to go One on One at the Ground Zero PPV.

Speaking of Drake Douglas, the Cage of Honor member and his running buddies Mike Vendetta and Roderick Rampage have their sights set on GNL gold. They are also acting as ambassadors for a potential GNL affiliation with COH. Word is the Board of Directors are speaking to each and every GNL Superstar and Staff Member to get their opinion prior to making a decision.

Finally, These Boys Are Still In Development (TBASID), have come to the GNL and have made an impact quickly. Winning not only the GNL Ultra Championship and GNL Project Next Championship but also being the inaugural Gen Next Elite Tag-Team Champions and the inaugural Gen Next Elite Trios Champions. These guys don't seem to need anymore time in development.

Well fans thats all the time we have for this episode. Remember to check out the Official Generation Next League Facebook Page for all the latest news and updates. Also listen in to the Generation Next League Tubecast for what's going on in the GNL. Until next time, this is Spencer Bateman signing off. Good night.

*Feel free to contact Commissioner Andrew Nichols and Mr. James on the Official Generation Next League Facebook Page or email us at badracer616@yahoo.com

Watch us on

On my way out here tonight, I Insane Issac was asked to comment on the Douglas and Koloff abrupt meeting, Well allow me to comment, Douglas you are a great Talent but so is Koloff, so both parties can chalk it up to Intense atmosphere or at some point a Koloff and Douglas confrontation can happen and may the best man win, and I am most definitely sure Koloff WILL, now moving on Koloff captured Gold just as I said He would but by no means does that fulfill Koloff agenda, what's next some ask: Wait and see, just know to Koloff: Your Agony is his Happiness and your Pain is Koloff delight!!! I am out of here

The arena is buzzing from another great GNL event when a dragons cry can be heard throughout the arena followed by the japanese style music of DORAGON. DORAGON and Dr. Worthington make their way down the ramp to the ring with microphone in hand.

Worthington: Well hello good fans of the GNL i do hope all of you are having a splendid time here tonight. DORAGON and I have a couple things we would like to get off our chests if it's all the same to you good people here. First and foremost i must apologize to my warrior for perhaps not spending enough time focusing on his carrer here in the GNL and it seems it has caused a sort of lack luster start to his record here so far but make no mistake about it i am invested in DORAGON's success and i promise him and all of you fans that my other responsibilities here will not hinder his in ring performance any longer. My beast will rise again and gain the notoriety he so deserves in this league with no special treatment of any sort just the support of his dear friend and manager. Second although DORAGON has not had the best strat in the GNL he accepts all challenges and never scurrys away from any foe so with Ground Zero coming up DORAGON has informed me that he will take on any one who would like to challenge him. He feels as though that is the perfect platform for him to get back on track and begin his destined journey to GNL gold. Thank you good people for letting us have a moment of your time and remember that you are the reason we do this. Ta ta for now.

The lights go out and a spotlight comes on showing a Childs choir at the top of the ramp as the choir begins to sing "What a friend we have in Jesus". As the choir sings another spotlight shines into the ring were the Flock is standing.

Reverend James Jones: Welcome all of you god-fearing people standing before you are the Undefeated Undisputed Den Next World Champion me Reverend James Jones, the United States champion Deaconess Mary Lou and the Undefeated Rising Star champion Deacon Dave. That's right the only lose to blemish our record was when Deaconess Mary Lou did the right thing and laid down for me to take the Undisputed Den Next World Championship, like the good flock member that she is. Like I've said before we are here only to lead all of you sinners to the light and I hope that this little show of strength shows just how serious we are about doing just that. Every one who tried to resist giving up there evil ways tasted the Cool-Aid and I'm sure will be seeing the light soon enough. This brings me to my next question of who in the GNL with be the next to go down on knee before us and beg for the lord's forgiveness. We are here and waiting for the opportunity to show them the light.

Hello once again Generation Next League fans. Spencer Bateman here backstage at GNL Live Event in Buenos Aires, accompanied by no other than Prince Lee.

Bateman: Prince Lee how are you feeling after your second tour with the GNL?*

Lee: Rather rough! I had several rough outings this tour.*

Bateman: Can you reflect on some of your matches for the fans viewing from home?*

Lee: Certainly, the Generation Next League is full of Main Event potential Superstars. 9 competitors I faced this tour won via disqualification. Replay in Professional Wrestling would have been rather nice for myself. Gentlemen I understand winning at all costs but these guys were showing shades of the late great Eddie Guerrero. Lying, Cheating and Stealing their way to victory, from shoving me into the Ref or throwing foreign objects into my hands then bumping for the ref to catch me with said object in my possession.*

Bateman: What is next for Prince Lee?*

Lee: Take some time off to regroup and clear my head from this tour. When I come back next tour, I will do what I do best and that is putting on performances night after night for the GNL fans, who knows maybe a championship along the way.*

Bateman: You mention the word championship, how does it feel to be 1/3 of the Inaugural Generation Next Junior Trios Champions with The Blazer Corp?*

Lee: "Frogger" Jay Dixon and Doc Washington are great competitors. "Frogger" is an absolutely phenomenal wrestler and Doc is a MONSTER! Being crowned Inaugural Generation Next Junior Trios Champions is huge for our careers. We made GNL history with that victory.*

Bateman: Before time runs out is there anything else you would like to touch on?*

Lee: With the support of the GNL fans, my career can only go up from here. Being the first graduate of the GNL Gym, I have more to prove than the remainder of the roster. It's time for me to prove why I belong here in the Generation Next League.*

Well there you have it folks, sounds like Prince Lee has a gameplan and is look to implement it this coming tour, right here in the Generation Next League!!!!

T.B.A.S.I.D.

THESE BOYS ARE STILL IN DEVELOPMENT

OFFICIAL FARM SYSTEM FOR THE BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN

"THE MAN"	"LETHAL"	"BRUISER"
SCOTT	DERRICK	QUINTON
GERRAN	JAMES	HALL

The scene opens to a training center that looks nearly barren and mostly rundown. A single ring has been erected in the middle of building. Inside the ring are Scott, Derrick, and Quinton along with this week's trainer: "The Intellectual" Cornelius Crowley. The group has halted their workout for some verbal instruction.

Cornelius: There are a lot of men and women in this business who are mistaken about the most important tool a wrestler can have at their disposal. Make no mistake, my friends - your mind is more dangerous than any suplex or slam. With it, you can anticipate your opponent's next intent. A properly developed mind will keep you calm during a distressing point in the contest. When you lack mental astuteness and discipline, everything else will unravel at the moment of truth.

Gerran, James, and Hall have nearly caught their breath during the rest period.

Derrick: Are you saying that Thunder and Lightning aren't devastating?

Cornelius: (scoffing) Of course your fists of fury are everything they are rumored to be. But they are worthless if you act without intelligence. A wild swing made too early, for example, could leave you wide open for a counter attack. It is time to get back to work, gentlemen.

With that, the physical training resumes for the Boys in Development.

GNL- CAGE OF HONOR

Drake Douglas Wants Siberian Assassin!

DD: Last cycle, apparently Siberian Assassin and his cupcake of a pal Insane Isaac didn't like it when the Cage Of Honor boys got too close. But something tells me he expected us to back down but that's not going to happen, not on that guys best day. He talks about how "your pain is his gain," we'll each cycle I'll become his pain till he mans up and faces me in that ring. Last cycle he put his hands on me and he's lucky I allowed that. This cycle it might go a little different if I want to play that game.

Bottom line, annoying Isaac wants to screech around backstage about pain, you boys want pain I'll deliver. I'm daring you to step in my way again and you'll see what I can do. I'm simply being polite letting you know that I'm about to do something bad to you. While you're out in the ring beating the curtain jerkers, I just debuted in HRL as well. I'm out there fighting while you're talking and posing in your provocative playgirl pictures. The time is coming assassin and I'm patiently waiting to make my pain your pain.

Douglas Debuts in HRL

Last cycle in HRL out of Bronze fed, GNL's Drake Douglas made his debut in the High Roller League. We've been told that Douglas will compete in both leagues to further fulfill his COH contractual goals. More on this as details become available.

Rampage & Vendetta on a quest for GNL gold

Our 2nd cycle in GNL: didn't go as planned. We were determined to win either the Elite or Jr tag titles. Bottom line is we failed but we keep going. As one of the most decorated teams outside the IWA, we win and that's what we do, it's what we have to do. Any team in GNL wants to step up and show us how good you are, we're ready to take on the World and anyone in Iron fed.

We saw the ICW and COH add and we want in on that action. We have COH contracts so we know what we're allowed to do. Whichever one of those mutt teams that wins the ICW World Tag Team Championship, just know we're gunning for them and we'll proudly bring them back to GNL to defend.

Douglas Strikes!

After the battle royal, Siberian Assassin went back in the ring mocking the crowd. As he and Insane Isaac ran their mouth Drake Douglas slid into the ring and as Assassin turned around he was blasted by a vicious forearm strike. Isaac stood in shock as Douglas stood over Assassin then simply left the ring and headed to the back. As he was at the top of the ramp he turned around pointed at Isaac and yelled, "is he feeling pain? Next cycle there will be more pain until he faces me one on one."

EVIL WONDER WOMAN

EVIL WONDER WOMAN speaks: I am here in the GNL to destroy anyone who gets in my way and win championships, including the IWA World Championship, and nothing will stop me. Ha ha ha ha! Enough said.

FROGGER JAY DIXON

DOC WASHINGTON

THE GULFPORT BOYZ

Frogger Jay Dixon: And boom shaka-laka! Look at all this gold for the Blazer Corporation Doc!

Doc Washington: We got gold Frogger Jay!

Dixon: Ya darned straight! The Gulfport Boyz are a force to be reckoned with, not only in the tag division, but singles too yo! Look at this Gen Next Junior Heavyweight Title belt! Look at her dawg! This, plus the Junior Tags with my boy Doc Washington!

Washington: Uhhhhhh!!!

Dixon: Plus the Junior Trios! Dawg, I am the Junior Triple Crown dawg!

Washington: They don't recognize the Junior Triple Crown Frogger Jay!

Dixon: Well you know who does? ME! From now on, you can call me Mr. Junior Triple Crown, Frogger Jay Dixon, know what I'm sayin'?

Prince Lee is a funny kinda guy, kinda quiet around the Gulfport Boyz. But you hang with us, you can expect to get gold around your waist. I heard this dude has some gold in his bank account too Doc.

Washington: I heard that too Frogger Jay!

Dixon: That's cool though, I got gold in my teeth, but I ain't braggin. What I do wanna brag about though is our tag titles. And the beating that we're looking to put on the Wold Tag Champs. "These Boys Are Still In Development" Daaaaannnnngg! What a group name eh Doc?

Washington: Sounds stupid to me. They in some farm system or somethin'.

Dixon: Dang right they in the farm system, cuz they look like swine to me!!! Pucker up punks, cuz the Gulfport Boyz are comin' after your titles. Don't make me call the Butcher on ya!

Washington: I'll make'em bleed Frogger Jay!

Dixon: I know ya will Doc! We're gonna make'em ALL BLEED!!!!!!!
