Superstar Cycle Insider...

Generation Next League Fans, Spencer Bateman here welcoming each of you back for Tour #9 edition of the Superstar Cycle Insider. This particular Superstar Cycle Insider will be a "special edition", as I have patiently waited to interview my guests this Tour. This is just one more shot that I get to "stick it to the man"! Yes GNL'ers, this edition I had the privilege an opportunity to sit down with very close personal friends, being Virus/Highly Suspect members High Jax, Maria Jane and Moe Greenhouse. Finally, I am able to present all the GNL Fans with a Superstar Cycle Insider that has been long overdue.

Jaxon Webb or as everyone in the GNL know him as High Jax, grew up with the finer things in life.

From the latest fashion trends, material items, to hosting the coolest party. Jax's parents both worked for the United States Postal Service, both being long term veterans and both being managers of separates offices.

They both were well compensated for their employment, in which they earned through hard work. Jaxon and childhood friend Moe Cooper (Moe Greenhouse), were huge wrestling fans. Watching both WCW and WWF. Taking in every moment of the Monday Night Wars, never missing a night or Pay Per View.

Upon their completion of High School, Jax and Moe decided they wanted to enroll in Wrestling School in downtown New Orleans. The two went against their parents advice on gaining full time employment and began training.

This particular school was taught by an overweight bayou hillbilly by the name of Heavy Hugh. Heavy put Jax and Moe through the ropes quickly as they were a product of their parents hard work and dedication. As the years passed they seen a fair share or wrestling fanatics come and go through the school but they stayed focused to become the best.

One day Diego Pordresa, a usual school attendee, brought his little sister Maria (Jane) with him. Maria and Jaxon immediately locked eyes. She started training with Jaxon and Moe as the three became inseparable. The three made a pact that they would all stay together and live out their big dream of becoming Professional Wrestlers. Jax and Maria decided to keep things on a professional level. To get their names out and to hit the road in their run down van making town after town.

The Trios heard about this hot NEW Wrestling Federation that was about to open up it's doors and were looking for more talent to extend their rosters. They hammered the gas pedal and found themselves moments away from an in-ring tryout for the Generation Next League. It was on the way, to pass time they decided to calm their nerves and smoke out. Prior to stepping in the ring they were greeted by GNL Commissioner Andrew Nichols and GNL General Manager Dr. William Worthington. Dr. Worthington asked "What shall we call this Trios"? Jax commented with "I'm High.....Jax, that's Moe....Ugh Greenhouse and this is Maria...Jane"????

Highly Suspect being victims of personal attacks from GNL Management with their accusations and "Random" Drug Screenings, have been in the GNL from Tour #1. High Jax has been a 2x Gen Next Junior World Champion, No Limits and Super X Champion. Maria Jane has been a 2x United States Champion and No Limits Champion. Moe Greenhouse has been a International Champion. They have held the Gen Next Junior Trios Championships the past four Tours. Their accomplishments are on-going as they are entrepreneurs. They currently Own/ Operate Highly Insurance and Smoke-N-Shop. Moe is an Official Spokesman for Raising Cane's. Maria Jane has the McNut-Punch Bars. High Jax recently became a Big Brother Mentor, as he and TBABIT member "Lethal" Derrick James enjoyed a nice evening of Dungeons and Dragons.

This edition of the Superstar Cycle Insider has been an absolute pleasure. Thanks to GNL Management it has only taken 9 Tours. I'm certain future episodes will be pointless, considering Highly Suspect is the only thing relevant in the GNL. Until next time, this is Spencer Bateman signing off.

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Generation Next League, I would personally like to thank each of you. From our great fans and GNL Office Personal to the GNL Superstars that lay it on the line night after night. Tour #8, another successful Tour with the GNL recorded in the books. AfterMath is approaching very quickly. It appears some last second wildcards are making their presence. Something about the GNL to keep in mind, the cards are always subject to change. AfterMath should be another top notch Generation Next League Pay Per View. We have several exciting matches already booked for the show. If you are not booked contact myself or GNL General Manager Dr. William Worthington immediately, as this is literally you last opportunity to participate in AfterMath. Having said that, my best of luck goes out to Virus: Reverend Jame Jones and Virus/HS: High Jax. These two gentlemen will go one on one this Tour to determine the #1 Contender to face TBABIT: "The Man" Scott Gerran for the GNL Super Next Crown Championship at AfterMath.

Thank you for your time and for all that each of you do for the Generation Next League.

- Commissioner Andrew Nichols

THE WORLD'S GREATEST GENERAL MANAGER

Ello GNL Fans and welcome to another GNL General Managers Report. I am your GNL General Manager Dr. William Worthington. Well we have has a splendid time here in the GNL on our way to our 2nd PPV AfterMath. I have been up to my nickers in paperwork with all of the american legalities of putting on such a grand production such as this. I am proud to announce that all contracts have been signed and the matches I announced will take place, although cards are subject to change.

I have been in contact with El Oh El's advocates and I believe he will be taking his mandatory Drug Screening here within the next couple days as far as I understand. You know I speak proper english not broken english so it was rather difficult for me to comprehend, but I assure you one way or another it will get done or another suspension will be handed out.

Moving on, I would like to congratulate Mr. Drake Douglas on his Undisputed Gen Next World Championship win. Also a congratulations is in order for the Blazer Corp on being only the 3rd Tag Team in GNL history to take home the Gen Next Elite Tag Team Championships. Good works chaps, keep up the effort.

Let me make one thing perfectly clear, while I have the platform to do so. I may be a little formal and stern with the way I conduct business in this League but I am truly proud of each and every member of the GNL family, even the ones I have had spats with. All of you are the ones that make this League work and all of you are exceptional in your own little ways. If I have offended any of you in any sort of way please accept my deepest apologies and understand that I do not dislike any of you. At the end of the day it's just business.

Well that is all that I have for this edition of the GM's Report. Continue to reach for great heights and this League will soar. Now prepare as we make our way for AfterMath. Ta-Ta for now.

- General Manager Dr. William Worthington

What's Wrong With ...

What's up GNL'ers? Spencer Bateman here for yet again another episode of What's Wrong With The GNL. My god have we been busy!!!! I mean with Tag Teams coming out of the wood work gunning for the TBABIT, power tripping management, potentially new stable members and the new comers coming into the frey to claim their spot at greatness. The GNL is certainly looking like the hottest spot to be but not due to any of those things. It's because of the entertaining skills of myself and the entrepreneurial skills of my people, Highly Suspect, HAHAHA.

Enough about us, let's talk about the so called Royalty that has invaded the GNL. I am talking about the members of the Realm. First of all, who let these d bags in the country? I want to see their work visa's. Second, cheated to get Prince Lee the Junior Next Crown Championship and have yet to be questioned about it at all. The Girard Brothers are running around the place acting like everyone should bow when they walk by. I propose that someone put them in their place and show them that it's not their native land. This is the GNL, where you don't demand respect, you earn it.

Being that we're on topic, after the completion of Tour #8 it tuns out that Realm Leader Prince Lee was one of two Superstars who in fact did defeat all three Virus "Flock" members in Reverend James Jones, Deacon Dave and Deaconess Mary Lou. Prince Lee defeated all three "Flock" members faster than the only other Superstar who competed the challenge being Order: Dr. Savage. I guess the real question now is, will Reverend James Jones be a man of his word and reward Prince Lee with $100,000 of his personal money? Why did it have to be Prince Lee??? It almost like GNL management may have had something to do with this result!!! Stay tuned to see if Virus: Reverend James Jones will in fact be a man of his word and hand over that $100,000....

Well that's all I've got for this episode, make sure to tune in every Tour for the latest wisdom I have to drop on the uneducated. Until next time, fight for you rights and don't take no.....
