Superstar Cycle Insider...

GNL'ers, it is I, the incomparable Spencer Bateman back from a rather unpleasant hospital stay due to the hands of TBABIT. That, we will touch on at a later moment in time. Now it is the time all of my fans have been waiting for another installment of the Superstar Cycle Insider presented by yours truly. Ladies and gentlemen of the GNL, my guests this Tour have completely taken the GNL Trios division by storm, they are no other than Neuva Orden Japonese members Joe Duggan, Henry Defile and Xolo.

These guys had quite the "try out" period in the GNL. After multiple "try outs" being attacked our Commissioner Andrew Nichols stepped in giving them a full Tour "try out". From that Tour "try out" they racked up 6 GNL Championships and have yet to look back. They won the Generation Next Junior Trios Championships Tour #10 and retained Tour #11 to become the first GNL Superstars to accept the 5 Free Match Incentive.

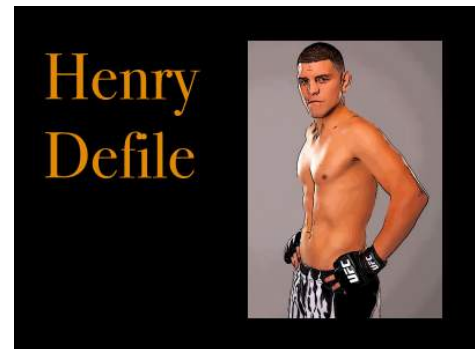

During this interview not much information was given for each of the NOJ members backgrounds. The apparent language barrier and rather lack of information given are the two obvious reasons. What little information they did offer up sheds very little light on the NOJ Trios.

Xolo was born and raised in Mexico City, Mexico. At the tender age of 5, he was enrolled into the NOJ Dojo. Following years of studying his Sensei's style of wrestling, he developed the strength and agility to use the ring ropes to fly from corner to corner in a wrestling ring. He used this in ring technique, delivering devastating blows to his opponents from various locations inside the squared circle. Henry Defile, a German native born was abandoned in Mexico City, Mexico as a toddler. He was taken in by a local orphanage and remained housed there until his 18th birthday. The orphanage referred Henry to join the NOJ Dojo to release built up tension and frustration due to his lack of discipline and years of struggling living within the orphanage atmosphere. Henry endured many vigorous hours of training as he perfected his craft in grappling and mat based attacks while power lifting. His Sensei taught him to focus his power while maintaining an agile defensive base. It's safe to say that Henry Defile is probably one of the most proficient mat based wrestlers on the entire GNL roster.

Joe Duggan unlike his NOJ Trios stable mates, was bread from a prime Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu MMA family. Trying to alter their son's decision to continue the "Family Tradition", they abruptly moved to Mexico City, Mexico. Upon their arrival in Mexico, a teenage Joe Duggan discovered a nearby NOJ Dojo. After much begging pleading for his parents approval, they agreed to enroll Joe in the Dojo. Simply put. Joe Duggan was a natural given his pedigree.

The three men met at the NOJ Dojo where they began training together as a Trios. They quickly became the three most technical and proficient students in the Dojo. Joe always maintained a resilient spirit which lead him to the forefront of the Trios. As I mentioned earlier, the Trios came into the GNL their inaugural Tour capturing the Generation Next Junior Trios Championships, Generation Next Elite Tag Team Championships and GNL Ultra Championship. Their second GNL Tour the rained the Generation Next Junior Trios Championships, making them the first GNL Superstars to capitalize on the 5 FREE MATCH incentive and the GNL Project Next Championship. Last Tour (#12), they became the Generation Next Elite Trios Champions defeating the Gulfport Boyz along with Josh Butterscotch. They also captured the GNL Open Gate Championship and the GNL Future Legends Championship.

Though the Neuva Orden Japones had quite a rather unpleasant "try out" period in the GNL, their Tour long "try out" period prevailed rather beneficial. Much of their backstory is yet a mystery but one thing is for certain, the NOJ stable has provided ample competition for other GNL stables. The background these three gentlemen share from their upbringing in the NOJ Dojo together, should provide justification for their Trios success. Expect to see big things from the NOJ stable in the GNL as they have already proven themselves as one of the premier Trios.

Ladies and gentlemen of the GNL, my congratulations go out to Virus/COH: Drake Douglas (495) for capturing his second Undisputed Generation Next World Heavyweight Championship. Virus/FLOCK: Deacon Dave (496) for winning his first Generation Next Junior World Championship. For all of the first reigning GNL Champions this past Tour (#12), TBABIT: "Bruise Quinton Hall, GB: Doc Washington, NOJ: Joe Duggan, VIRUS: Tazemebro the Unhinged, "The Platinum Prince" Anthony Hodges, Virus/FLOCK: Deaconess Mary Lou, BNC: "Wild Eyed Southern Boy" Joseph G. Clark, TBABIT: "Lethal" Derrick James, NOJ: Xolo and NOJ: Joe Duggan, Henry Defile and Xolo. Congratulations is also due to Realm: Prince Lee for winning the GNL Battle Royal, as he won 26 FREE MATCHES. Prince Lee also won the COH Invitational, winning $1,000,000, the opportunity to challenge the ICW World Champion at Final Battle in December and the opportunity to challenge the COH World Champion in early 2019.

This part Tour (#12), the Virus/COH members Roderick Rampage and Mike Vendetta met TBABIT: "Bruiser" Quinton Hall and "Lethal" Derrick James in their second match in their best of 5 series. TBABIT prevailed victorious evening the series 1-1. The Deacon Dave and Prince Lee rivalry for the Junior Next Crown Championship certainly heated up this past Tour as Deacon Dave viciously attacked Prince Lee. Dave challenged Lee to an Inferno Match at Collision Course. Dave and stable mate Deaconess Mary Lou sported their new look and attire this past Tour. Virus/FLOCK: Reverend James Jones challenged ARMY: "The Japanese Beast" Doragon to a match this Tour (#13), if Doragon wins he gets to name the match stipulation for their contest at Collision Course. It also appears the the rivalry between Order: Vicious Timothy Clark and Virus/COH: Drake Douglas seems to be growing more intense Tour after Tour. It almost seems the same for "The Platinum Prince" Anthony Hodges and Virus/FOE/HS: High Jax rivalry.

At this time I would like to personally welcome the CG stable into the GNL, that stable consist of P-Not, Sara Not and Fred Not. We hope that you will find the GNL to become you home within the IWA and wish you much success. I would like to present the Tour #12 Commissioner Bonus Winners, they are as follows.....

Undisputed Gen Next World Champion - Drake Douglas $10,000

(Cont'd)

Gen Next Jr. World Champion - Virus/FLOCK: Deacon Dave $10,000

Battle Royal Winner - Realm: Prince Lee $10,000

#1 Ranked Wrestler - GB: Frogger Jay Dixon $10,000

Best Trash Talk - Virus/Flock: Deaconess Mary Lou

Congratulation to each of you, you in ring abilities and endless talent reflect all of your efforts this past Tour. Our Battle Royal numbers are rising as all of you are spending that dollar. We seem to have hit a consistency in card count. We are knocking on the back door of the Top 10 IWA wide. I would like to wish everyone on the GNL roster a very successful Tour #13. I want to thank each and every single GNL Superstar and Manger for all of their dedication and commitment to the Generation Next League. Best of luck this Tour.

Ello chaps and welcome to another splendid edition of the Generation Next League General Manager's Report by yours truly, GNL General Manager, Dr. William

Worthington. All hail to the queen as we do have quite an extravagant show for you today. First and foremost, I must give a heartfelt cheerio to the GNL Undisputed Generation Next World Heavyweight Champion, Drake Douglas. Good showing young man, I always knew it was just a matter of time before you would be back atop the GNL mate. I must also congratulate TBABIT: “Lethal” Derrick James and “Bruiser” Quinton Hall for capturing the Generation Next Elite Tag Team Championships and for the NOJ capturing the prestigious Generation Next Elite Trios Championships. Good form for all of our GNL Champions, you truly represent this League with prestige and dignity.

Now on to my General Manager’s announcements.....

(Just then, a knock at the door of GNL General Manager’s Office, Dr. William Worthington. Three GNL security officers await outside his door.)

Worthington: What is the meaning of this? I am in the middle of rather important GNL business.

Security: Sorry for the interruption Dr. Worthington. Sir, you need to come with us at this time.

Worthington: I will do no such thing. I have an obligation to fulfill to the GNL fans, to give them the news and on-going’s of the GNL. I have a very important announcement to make.

Security: Sir, you can willingly come with us to Commissioner Nichols’ office or we can forcefully escort you there. The choice is yours.

Worthington: Well GNL’ers, I suppose my Report will have to be put on hold for the time being. Ta-Ta for now.....

What's Wrong With ...

Hello GNL fans and welcome to another episode of “What’s Wrong With The GNL”. Man, it is good to be back. I am your hostess with the mostest, Spencer Bateman and boy is this going to be a historic show. First, I am announcing that the name of my show will in fact be going back to “What’s Up In The GNL”, because I have a feeling that after this show, “What’s Wrong With The GNL” might be out of the GNL. Now instead of my normal show, I would like to show you guys a little piece of video footage I came across, that has been delivered to the Commish already. Boys, roll the tape.....

Gerran: I just want you to explain to me why I have to put my Title on the line against this freak?

Worthington: There is nothing I can do about it Gerran. He earned his Title shot fair and square. The Commissioner and Director of Talent Relations have been making matches to determine the number 1 contenders and Reverend James Jones won the opportunity to challenge you for your Championship.

Gerran: The problem is, I don't trust that his "FLOCK" of misfits is going to stay out of the match. Since the Boys are gonna have their hands full with COH, I want a rematch guarantee. If by some miracle Jones steals my Title.

Worthington: Well, you want your guaranteed rematch immediately? You're going to have to do something for me. I have a little problem here in the GNL by the name of Spencer Bateman. You take him out and I will personally guarantee you get your rematch, if necessary.

Gerran: (Thinks for a moment) You know what Worthington, consider it done. But, you better come through on your end of the deal.

The men shake hands as the cameras picked up and taken towards the interview area. The screen fades to black.

Well folks there is the video proof and I have spoken to Director of Talent Relations, Mr. James and Commissioner Nichols. I told them both, I will not be pressing charges for the heinous act that was taken out on me by Scott Gerran as long as the true person responsible was brought to justice. With that being said, I have been told by our Commissioner that Gerran will no longer receive a rematch for the GNL Super Next Crown Championship due to his actions.

That is all the time that I have for this episode. Be sure to stay tuned to the Generation Next League's Official Facebook Page for the latest updates and breaking news. Until next time folks. Don't forget to keep your head in the cloud
