[Scene: Backstage FSL interview area. Neon lights. A phone on a selfie stick is clearly filming. Chad Bro Chillington strolls in wearing designer shades, a sleeveless hoodie, and a massive iced-out chain that says “#Chillington.” He’s chewing gum obnoxiously and holding a protein shake in one hand and a phone in the other.]

Chad Bro Chillington:

Ayo FSL, what is UP, my dudes? 🙌

It’s ya boy, the king of content, the sultan of swole, the prince of pump, the maestro of mid-match mirror selfies—Chad. Bro. Chillington. 😎💯

Now before you even think about hatin’, lemme just say it: yeah, I left my last territory. Why? Cuz it was lame af, bro. No vibes. No drip. No dogs. Just a bunch of crusty boomers tryin’ to act hard. I was the only one bringin’ heat AND likes to that roster. I carried the algorithm on my back—and it hurt, bro. Not the gym kinda hurt. The betrayal kinda hurt. 😞💔

So now I’m here, in the F...S...L. And lemme tell you...

I am not impressed.

This place? Dry. Dehydrated. Thirsty for clout and talent. Where’s the competition? Where’s the charisma? Where’s the rizz?

I’m scrollin’ through the locker room and all I see is NPCs with zero followers and negative rizztistics. 🧠

But hey, maybe someone steps up. Maybe one of you basement-built beta boys decides to actually be interesting for once.

Because if you don’t?

Then I guess it’s just me—your boy Chad Bro Chillington—out here bench-pressing the brand while the rest of you struggle to lift your engagement. 🏋️📈

I ain’t here to just wrestle. I’m here to influence.

To dominate feeds and physiques.

To make the FSL go viral—even if I gotta drop every one of you in the middle of that ring and hit the #ChillShot heard ‘round the world.

So, follow me. Or fight me.

But either way... you’re part of my content now. 💥📱

#StayChillington, losers. 🧊

The 'tron suddenly flickers, and the letters RRS appear in silver against the black screen. The arena is suddenly blasted with the sounds of heavy metal. After a few seconds, the letters disappear, to be replaced by words; Death Block League, January 1, 1991. The screen remains that way for about thirty seconds, than Ozzy Osbourne's voice comes through the sound system, singing:

"I don't know what they're talkin' about
I'm makin' my own decisions
This thing that I found ain't gonna bring me down
I'm like a junkie without an addiction"

Grainy footage appears on the screen of a young blond wrestler in the middle of a match. He is technically sound, but it is obvious he is inexperienced. The video fades, to be replaced by more words; Old World League, December 15, 1991.

"Mama don't cry, I just wanna stay high
Like playing with danger and fear
Everybody's walkin' but nobody's talkin'
It looks a lot better from here"

New footage appears. It is the blond wrestler in another match, but a bit more toned, and with a number of scars on his chest and back. He looks more confident now, and mixes his wrestling with high flying moves and kung fu. After a minute, with his foe stunned, he does a forward roll into a handstand, driving his feet into his target's jaw. The man collapses, and the blond youngster covers him for the three count. The referee hands him a championship belt, and he joyfully holds it above his head.

"All my life I've been over the top
I don't know what I'm doin'
All I know is I don't wanna stop
All fired up, I'm gonna go 'til I drop
You're either in or in the way
Don't make me, I don't wanna stop"

The music stops, and the image is replaced by the same blond wrestler, but now middle-aged, with some gray in his hair and some wrinkles around his eyes. He is sitting on a bench in a locker room, wearing street clothes, but with a pair of tights on his left and wrestling boots on his right. He smiles at the camera.

"Hi there, I'm Richard Starr. It was my birthday a couple of days ago, and I've decided to give myself a present. One final run in the ring before I retire for good."

He pats the tights fondly.

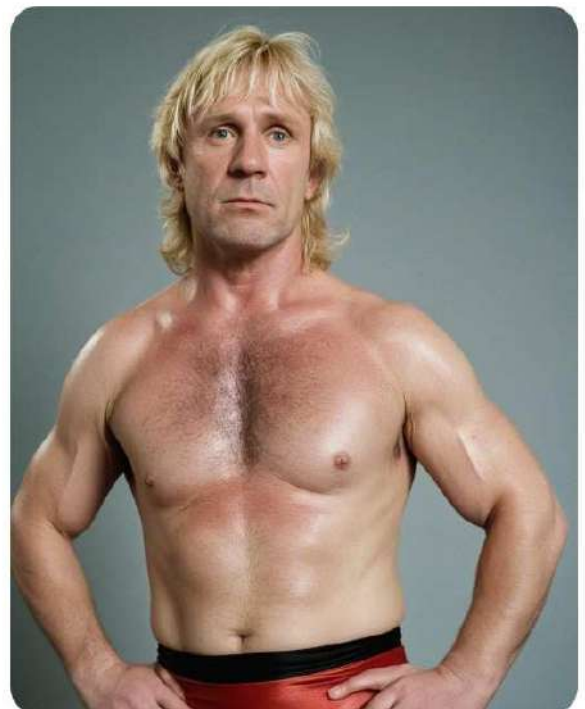

"I hope these still fit."

"I hear it is quite EDGEy here. This is gonna be fun."

The music starts playing again, and the video is replaced by a name, Rocking Richard Starr, before fading to a commercial.
