[Wonderful Wally Brown strolls into the Grim Reaper League arena, decked out in a shiny gold jacket, his sunglasses gleaming under the lights. He carries his microphone like a scepter, grinning smugly at the crowd, who are already showering him with boos. He steps into the ring, soaking it all in before raising the mic to speak.]

“Ah, would you listen to that? The sweet sound of jealousy and desperation! You people couldn’t even dream of being as wonderful as yours truly, Wally Brown, the man who keeps this league relevant while all you jobless rejects sit here hoping for scraps of entertainment. Newsflash: your little lives? They’re the intermission. I’m the main event, and you better believe it!”

[The boos intensify, and Wally mockingly holds a hand to his ear.]

“Oh, keep it coming! I thrive off your tears. But let’s talk about what really matters. EDGE. Yeah, congratulations to those boys—they went out there and snagged three World titles recently. Big deal, huh? But let me make something crystal clear: this league isn’t about EDGE, or their shiny little accomplishments. This is the Duchaine, Maple, and Eaves show! And you know who’s stealing the spotlight tonight? Wonderful Wally Brown, bay-bay! Me and my henchmen are taking over, and there’s not a damn thing EDGE, SoS, or anyone else can do about it.”

[Wally walks to the ropes, scanning the front row of the crowd, smirking as he spots a woman with her husband.]

“Speaking of losers, let’s talk about you fine folks sitting here tonight. Hey, sweetheart, yeah, you in the front row. I see you sneaking glances at me. Don’t worry, I get it. You’ve been stuck with this... cheeseburger-stuffed lump of a husband next to you for years. But let me tell you something—when you’re sitting at the Thanksgiving table next week, pretending to be thankful for him and that burnt turkey he probably can’t afford, just know this: I’m the man you really want carving your bird.”

[He laughs as the husband shouts back angrily, and Wally waves him off.]

“Relax, pal. I’m not here to take your wife tonight—I’m way out of her league honestly. But let’s get back to all of you fine people here in attendance. It’s the holidays, right? Time to be grateful. Well, let’s give thanks to the fact that you get to sit in the same arena as me. Wonderful Wally Brown, the guy who doesn’t just clock in for a paycheck like the rest of you sorry excuses—I dominate. I’m the man making moves, setting my sights higher and higher.”

[Wally smirks and turns back toward the camera.]

“You see, tonight, I’ve got a job to do, unlike most of you couch potatoes. Whether it’s me or one of my henchmen, we’ve got our eyes on the prize. That’s right. The GRL? It’s just the starting line. The league title? It’s within our grasp. But the bigger picture? Oh, that’s ours too. And when I’m done running through every so-called ‘star’ in this company, everyone from EDGE to Duchaine to Maple will know one simple truth: Wally Brown is inevitable.”

[Wally leans into the ropes, giving one last smirk to the crowd.]

“So go ahead, stuff your faces, argue with your families, and wallow in your miserable little lives this Thanksgiving. Because after tonight, you’ll all be talking about the Wonderful Wally Brown show. And trust me, you don’t want to miss what’s coming next.”

[He drops the mic with a loud thud, pointing at the crowd and blowing a mocking kiss to the wives in the audience before strutting out of the ring to a chorus of boos.]
