CLOSING CEREMONY: Feast or Famine or the End of the World joint pay-per-view is the 1st stop of the year. The tribes and committees are all hard at work to determine which is the best event to get the best action for everyone. I have stated that last tour and that is still in the works. The bigger story was that the Triple Crown rating have been changed to reflect a merger in the SVL and GWL, which will now send their very best 5 teans to compete the Triple Crown. This will also include singles as well. The GWL Commish wanted to get into the action, therefore, the tribes agreed that they should allow their brave warrior to showcase their talents. In addition, we also notice that each competing leagues had women performing in the leagues, therefore, we created something for them as well creating the Womens Top 30 list. That means that of course they are competing with the mean for each leagues regular titles, but that's to acknowledge that all this lady talent should also have a greater feature in each league. Kyle Rayner brought great honor to the tribes of the NSL, by winning the IWA World and King of the Ring title. Everyone hopefully you took advantage of the extra matches this cycle. More news to come during the next tour, including the matches for Feast and Famine, next tour.
