The camera wobbles. A boom mic dips into frame, hovers, then panics its way back out. The walls are clearly vinyl backdrops hastily stapled to something metal. At a folding table covered in loose paper, half-crushed soda cans, and what might be an unopened legal summons, Professor Vitali Medved sits across from his legal counsel: Lindland Sieracki, Esq., a man who wears both a necktie and a crewneck sweatshirt, somehow making both look unwashed.

Medved is speaking with his hands, eyebrows in full rebellion.

“Hopkin was to be held accountable! He said I was ‘off-format.’ He bit me during the lucha de apuestas. You said we filed! That the magistrates were sympathetic!”

Sieracki adjusts his glasses, which are clearly for reading menus and not briefs. “Yeah, well... We were pushing the suit, Vitali. But look. We’ve been borrowing Kizzef.”

Medved blinks. “What does this mean? I helped get Kizzef emigrate. I don’t borrow Kizzef. I deploy Kizzef.”

Sieracki leans back, one chair leg already threatening collapse. “It’s just... the Machines pivoted. Storyline’s kinda... you know. Gone now. The Blue Bloods drew better in the last three cycles and we picked up some US multis gold working the under-card with them. The arbitration panel decided it’s worth more if we don’t chase Hopkin anymore. We’re moving on.”

Medved stiffens. “So my feud is vapor. My grievances erased like draft seven of a forum post.”

A long pause.

A dog barks offscreen.

THE END....?

[The lights dim. A slow, seductive saxophone riff plays as pink and gold lights swirl around the entrance ramp. The curtain parts and out struts BIG BEAUTIFUL BILL, shirtless under a feathered robe, with a pair of oversized sunglasses and a smug grin spread across his face. The crowd boos almost instantly, but Bill soaks it in like he just won an award. He enters the ring slowly, flexing flabby biceps and puckering his lips at the camera. The music fades, and he raises the mic.]

BIG BEAUTIFUL BILL:

[smirking, flipping his sunglasses up]

"Well, well, well... UCW! Or should I say... 'U Can't Win' Wrestling? Hah! What a dump. But lucky for you, Triple B has finally arrived to class this place up a little!"

[He spins in a slow circle, striking an awkward pose like he thinks he's on a fashion runway.]

"Yeah, I know what you're thinkin'. You're sayin', 'Dang! Is that Big Beautiful Bill in the flesh? Is that the man who looks like a Greek god... if the god had a few cheat meals and didn't believe in cardio?' You're welcome, UCW. You're welcome for this visual feast."

[The crowd boos louder. Someone throws a popcorn bucket. He dodges it, barely.]

"Y'know, I heard the rumors. I heard y'all been beggin' for a real superstar. Not one of these sad sacks y'all keep trottin' outta the back, wearin' thrift store gear and lookin' like they just rolled outta the bargain bin at a gas station."

[He leans over the ropes, pointing to the back.]

"You got dudes back there callin' themselves warriors, killers, kings... but they look like they lost a fight with a meat slicer and a can of spray tan. None of them got the body, the mind, or the brand of Triple B!"

[He turns to the hard cam, winking.]

"And don't think I forgot about you, the UCW faithful... sittin' there in your ten-dollar chairs, with your five-dollar dreams and your zero-dollar self-esteem. Here's some free advice from Triple B: turn off your little TVs, step outta your little lives, and start livin' like me. Get bold. Get beautiful. Get Bill!"

[He unclasps the robe, revealing a gut he's proud of and a belt he definitely didn't earn.]

"This is the new standard of excellence in UCW! You can boo me all you want, but deep down, you know you wish you looked like me. You wish you were me. And one day, if you work hard, eat bad, and believe in yourself way too much... maybe, just maybe, you can be half as Big, half as Beautiful, and half as Bill."

[He drops the mic with a thud and begins blowing kisses to the audience, then slowly exits the ring with exaggerated swagger, as the saxophone music kicks back in. Fade out.]

Johnathan Hopkin approaches Kezzif,, clearly disgusted with the current state of their partnerships

Jonathan: “It appears that there is no way out of these contracts where we have to team with the hideous Machines. Kezzif, you need stop being buddy buddy with them and the Russian. I thought I had disposed of him, yet he still is a thorn in my side due to Lindland Sieracki, Esq. and the cockamammy rulings and judicial proceedings. Kezzif, stop seeing him.”

Kezzif: “But Boss, he really has some ideas with all the numbers. He told me about the double and then I won the King of the Ring. Why don’t you like him? Two of the Machines helped you win you only title in a while. And helping me win too! He wants me to wear a...”

Jonathan: “Enough of this. It is time we focus on ourselves. I want to regain the Jade title, it reminds of my father’s trading with China as a child. But we are not here to recant old tales of yesteryear, but you do not need to team with them anymore - and the Russian is not some sort of savant - he is just a bumbling old man.”

Kezzif: “But boss, you know we have to defend the titles - I invited Low Quality Machine to come celebrate the 4th of July with us. You know the French helped the colonists...”

Jonathan: “Maybe he will take off that ridiculous mask and if so there will be fireworks...”

Garrett Washington Allegheny shows up, pops his trunk.

Garrett: “Did somebody say fireworks! Let’s get the weekend started early!”
