Trish: Hello, XPL fans, Trish here with a backstage exclusive featuring none other than The Mighty Deadhead and his crew. Deadhead, it's great to have you here. Let's dive right into it. You recently had won the iron fed with Executioner a few months back. Will you be back on top?

The Mighty Deadhead: Trish, it's been a journey, but let me tell you, setbacks only make us stronger. The iron fed Executioner was just another taste of our dominance and I'm back, bigger, badder, and ready to rock. You can't keep The Mighty Deadhead down for long.

Trish: Glad to hear you're back in action, Deadhead. Now, I heard your friend from CURE went inactive. Any words for him?

The Mighty Deadhead: Absolutely, Trish. Our friend from CURE may be taking care of some business, but we're wishing him all the best. We know he'll come back stronger than ever. The bond between us runs deep, and we'll be here waiting to welcome him back with open arms.

Trish: That's a great show of camaraderie. Now, onto some recent drama. Paul Heyman and his crew were labeled a disappointment by their former stable. What's your take on that?

The Mighty Deadhead: Disappointment? More like disrespect, Trish. Paul Heyman and his crew may have fallen short, but to be labeled a disappointment by their own stable? That's a low blow. It's clear they've got some issues to work out, but hey, that's their problem. We're here to focus on our goals and leave the drama behind.

Trish: Strong words, Deadhead. And speaking of goals, what's next for you and your COT crew?

The Mighty Deadhead: Titles, Trish. We're here to take titles, plain and simple. Circle of Tyrants is on a mission, and we're not stopping until we've smoked the competition and claimed what's rightfully ours. The XPL better watch out because The Mighty Deadhead and crew are coming for gold, and nobody can stand in our way.

Trish: There you have it, folks, The Mighty Deadhead and his crew with their sights set on championship glory. Stay tuned because things are about to heat up in the XPL!
