

STABLECADE 2024

So, you think you belong to the best stable in the game, eh?
Want to prove it? Here's your chance!

The winners of this annual event will be determined by taking the five wrestlers with the highest strategy totals from each group that signs up, and finding the averages of those totals. Each of the participating grapplers from the stable with the best average will receive $100,000 in imaginary money! Their names and their managers' names will appear in the IWA Report and on our website. The complete list of how each ring warrior performed will also be available online.

We only count the top five strategies so smaller stables can compete with larger ones, and managers can't purposely create wrestlers with poor strategies to sabotage other stables (the lower strategies won't even come into play). Please be aware that your stable must enter at least five wrestlers to take part in this contest.

If there are any ties, they'll be broken by comparing the averages of the four best strategy totals in each group, then the three best, and so on. The point flow of the top strategy from each stable will be compared, if needed, then the second-best strategy in each, etc. As a last resort, we'll compare more than just the five best strategies from each faction, but only if they all entered more than five members.

Wrestlers whose stable initials contain a slash, such as ABC/XYZ, will only represent the group listed first (ABC, in this example), and those without any initials will band together as the "Free agents" stable. Please make sure the initials in front of your wrestlers' names are correct. There is no charge for changing stable initials.

It's time to act! Complete the other side of this form, then send both it and the entry fees to us by your league's deadline for the upcoming March cycle. When the results post, that will be your cue to start enjoying an entire year's worth of bragging rights!

STABLECADE 2024

So, you think you belong to the best stable in the game, eh?
Want to prove it? Here's your chance!

The winners of this annual event will be determined by taking the five wrestlers with the highest strategy totals from each group that signs up, and finding the averages of those totals. Each of the participating grapplers from the stable with the best average will receive $100,000 in imaginary money! Their names and their managers' names will appear in the IWA Report and on our website. The complete list of how each ring warrior performed will also be available online.

We only count the top five strategies so smaller stables can compete with larger ones, and managers can't purposely create wrestlers with poor strategies to sabotage other stables (the lower strategies won't even come into play). Please be aware that your stable must enter at least five wrestlers to take part in this contest.

If there are any ties, they'll be broken by comparing the averages of the four best strategy totals in each group, then the three best, and so on. The point flow of the top strategy from each stable will be compared, if needed, then the second-best strategy in each, etc. As a last resort, we'll compare more than just the five best strategies from each faction, but only if they all entered more than five members.

Wrestlers whose stable initials contain a slash, such as ABC/XYZ, will only represent the group listed first (ABC, in this example), and those without any initials will band together as the "Free agents" stable. Please make sure the initials in front of your wrestlers' names are correct. There is no charge for changing stable initials.

It's time to act! Complete the other side of this form, then send both it and the entry fees to us by your league's deadline for the upcoming March cycle. When the results post, that will be your cue to start enjoying an entire year's worth of bragging rights!

Ready to sign up? Neatly print your wrestlers' ID numbers in the space below, then send this form, and $1 for each wrestler you are entering, to us with your league matches for the March cycle.

My name is _____.

Here are the ID numbers of the wrestlers in the _____ that I wish to enter. I am enclosing $1 for each.

You may enter as many of your wrestlers as you wish, but each entry must be accompanied by the $1 fee, and you may not enter the same wrestler more than once. Entries received without the contest fee are ineligible. The IWA is not responsible for late or misdirected entries. You must submit your contest entries with your regular league matches, since they will be processed at the same time.

Ready to sign up? Neatly print your wrestlers' ID numbers in the space below, then send this form, and $1 for each wrestler you are entering, to us with your league matches for the March cycle.

My name is _____.

Here are the ID numbers of the wrestlers in the _____ that I wish to enter. I am enclosing $1 for each.

You may enter as many of your wrestlers as you wish, but each entry must be accompanied by the $1 fee, and you may not enter the same wrestler more than once. Entries received without the contest fee are ineligible. The IWA is not responsible for late or misdirected entries. You must submit your contest entries with your regular league matches, since they will be processed at the same time.