

THE IWA REPORT

Volume 29, Number 6 • Spring 2024

 Still to come are the number of times wrestlers/managers retained titles.*

Johnny B Says

In honor of it bein' the bloomin' Spring cycle, we're giving you the opportunity to do some spring cleaning on your wrestlers' records! Enclose a note with next cycle's matches that reads, "Remove 20 losses from my wrestler, ID #123." Choose up to 20 losses, and use your wrestler's ID number instead of 123. Be sure to separate the request from your trash talk by skipping some space. Wrestlers must pay $25,000 in i-cash for each loss, so erasing the maximum of 20 losses will cost $500K. You may drop losses from as many of your wrestlers as you wish, but only during next cycle!

It is now known that Donald Henry has won back-to-back real-life belts for owning the contract of the Unknown Wrestler League's final champion! Last time, manager Michael Cook somehow kept all six of his wrestlers from being unmasked throughout the special league's entire 25-cycle run, and Donald stole that valuable page out of his competitor's playbook for this go-round! Simply amazing. Michael and manager Brad Norman each helped a very impressive total of four grapplers escape unscathed.

If you missed your chance to get in on the fun last time, fear not: the sign-up forms for the next gauntlet will be mailed out with the June cycle bulletins! The UWL will use the Diamond Federation hold values when it returns.

Speaking of sign-up forms, the ones for our annual State Wrestling contest will be included in your envelopes next cycle. There will be a special bonus for the winners this year, so don't miss it!
